Lost in Translation: Knotting at Knot & Purl!

We have some BIG news! 🎉

You may not know this but the logo and concept of the name Knot & Purl symbolizes the love of all crafting between WOOD knots and purl stitches. It seems that got lost in translation somewhere. 😂 So in response to the incredible demand from our community, Knot & Purl is shifting our retail strategy to focus on yarn sales! To make room for this exciting transformation, we're clearing out all gift retail inventory, including wall art, seasonal items, and pet gifts. Heavy discounts available!

We're committed to providing a unique selection of yarn and supplies by partnering with local-only suppliers. This means you'll find specialty products that truly reflect the spirit of our crafting community!

We're eager for your input—what would you like to see? Knitting kits, specific types of yarn, or other knitting supplies? Your feedback is invaluable!

We're also on the lookout for experienced knitters to join this exciting journey! If you're passionate about sharing your skills, we'd love to partner with you for advanced knitting workshops, knitting circles, and possibly even crochet, macramé, needlepoint, and embroidery if there's interest.

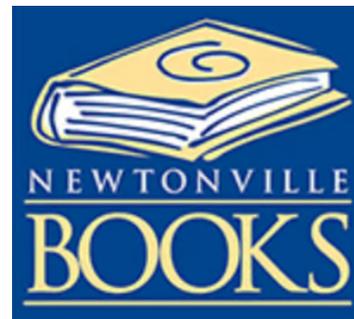

The community is talking, and we are listening! 🗣️

We can't wait to embark on this new chapter together, and we're thrilled to bring you even more crafting joy at Knot & Purl! Stay tuned for updates and let's make some magic happen! 🧶 ✨
